Cherry Blossom

Once a year, our city of Macon lights up with a bright pink hue. It's Cherry Blossom time! The Cherry Blossom Festival showcases some of Macon's finest in music concerts, art shows and social gatherings, such as parades, church gatherings, pageants, street parties, and firework shows. No matter the occasion, Southeast was represented well by Princess Christy Dry, a Southeast senior.

The 1994 Cherry Blossom Festival welcomed many guests including city councilmen, and high school students from our sister city of Kurobe, Japan, former President Jimmy Carter, and "The Godfather of Soul", James Brown.

There were many contests for children, such as this one, where children decorate the sidewalk with chalk.

Christy Dry, a senior, represented Southeast well as a 1994 Cherry Blossom Princess.

James Brown, "The Godfather of Soul", put on a terrific show for his family and friends.

Former President Jimmy Carter, and his wife, Rosalyn, were the Grand Marshals of the Cherry Blossom Parade.

Elvis was not the only one who could be seen in a pink Cadillac.

Carriage rides were a familiar sight in downtown Macon during the Cherry Blossom Festival.

People gathered in downtown parks to watch such performers as the Navy Steel Blues Band.

Spring Fling

During the week of March 28 thru April 1, the students at Southeast enjoyed our annual Spring Fling activities. It is a fun week for Southeast. We enjoy each day with a new theme and on Friday we have different activities outside and the Slam Dunk contest in our gym. The different clubs and organizations here at Southeast worked hard to make Friday lots of fun for the students. During all the fun Friday, the Juniors and Seniors played a softball game. The winners were the Seniors, of course.

Middle: What's up Chris?
Right: Teachers enjoy themselves on Friday afternoon. Their favorite activity was being lazy.

Every year the Home Economics Department organizes a mock wedding. The bride was Niesha Logan and the groom was Terrel Clarington. The wedding was held in the garden of the Southeast Vocational Building. It was a lovely ceremony and was followed by a reception. The Home Economics Department did a wonderful job with organizing the ceremony and reception.

Beta Club

The Southeast Beta Club is an organization which honors and recognizes students who show high academic achievement, leadership abilities, and moral character. The Beta Club participates in many activities throughout the year. They create Halloween baskets for children at the Medical Center, provide refreshments for teachers during American Education Week, and also make donations to Kids Yule Love, MDA, and the American Cancer Society. To say the least, this has been a very exciting year for the Southeast Beta Club.

Student Council

The Student Council, which is formed by fellow classmates, has always had great participation from the student body. This club promotes responsibility, leadership, and self-discipline. New this year to the Warriors is the addition of Channel One, WSEH, a morning announcement show that keeps the students informed about the upcoming events. Other activities that the Student Council helps with are the pep rallies, banners and signs to hang up around the school and at the games, and promoting school spirit. Student Council is also very active in the community and serves at functions such as Kids Voting, Junior City Council, Cherry Blossom Health Screenings, and the Teen Forum. Student Council represents Southeast well!!

Officers: Treasurer Amy Parham, Director Christy Dry, Vice-President Dale Hamlin, Director Julie Black, President Darrell Greene, Director Chris Pham.

Civitan

The Southeast Junior Civitan Club has grown a great deal this year. They have fifty members enrolled, which are mostly new members. The club is for young people who want to help serve their homes, school, community and nation through unselfish acts of service to society. The Junior Civitans sponsor the Red Cross Blood Drive and assist with bowling for the handicapped. They also attend a Dance-a-Thon, district meetings, and other group activities.

Officers: Second Vice-President Jennifer Maddox, Sergeant-at-Arms Dale Hamlin, Secretary Amy Weaver, Treasurer Leigh Jacobs, First Vice-President Malynda Rozier, President Jennifer Wall.

Key Club

Helping the less fortunate is the main emphasis of the Key Club. Under the leadership of Advisor John Griffin and officers President Denni Stokes, Vice-President Christina Reid, Secretary Natalie Nixon, and Treasurer Tonya Thrift, the Key Club has been able to help the community in numerous ways. The club held its annual canned food drive during the Thanksgiving holidays which was a great success. For Christmas the members donated toys to Kids Yule Love and at Easter they created Easter baskets for the Childrens' Hospital. The Key Club has created a reputation of service for Southeast.

Leo Club

The Leo Club of Southeast is affiliated with the Lions Club in Macon. One of their biggest projects this year was sponsoring a party for the blind students at the School for the Blind. President Erica Vitale, Vice-President Jennifer Weaver, and Secretary/Treasurer Brooke Howell keep the service going by heading the annual winter coat drive and the Adopt-a-Family project at Thanksgiving. They also donate Christmas presents for homeless teenagers, used glasses and hearing aids, and they hold fundraisers to send blind students to camp. Keep up the good work!!

Frater Sodalis

Frater Sodalis has continued to support Southeast in many ways this year. They purchased the Ninth Grade Basketball, B-team Football, and boys and girls Varsity Tennis trophies and have produced the most popular Southeast T-shirt on campus. President Reginald Williams longs to expose the students to many cultural activities not usually a part of school life. Along with the help of Secretary Kendra Jones, Treasurer Shaquanza Bell, Frat Daddy Aundra Franklin, Advisor Mr. Ficklin, Reginald and the club have achieved their goals.

Optimist Club

The Southeast Junior Optimist Club volunteers in various community service activities. These include decorating nursing homes for Christmas and checking smoke detectors for fresh batteries. Through the leadership of President Tonia McDonald, Vice-President Chris Barnes, and Secretary/Treasurer Cherolyn Thomas and Mr. Bush, the advisor, they have promoted a higher level of community awareness and responsibility to the community. Club members receive satisfaction from knowing that they have helped someone in their community.

Pep Club

The Pep Club promotes school spirit through pep rallies, athletic events, and various other activities. They help with Homecoming and Spring Fling. The club also sponsors a discount trip to Six Flags in May. Their biggest event of the year is the All-Sports Banquet which honors and recognizes each athlete for their accomplishments this year.

Officers: Secretary Michelle Longo, President Chris Harris, Business Manager Melvin Fuller, Assistant Secretary Veronica Newton.

International Club

Foreign culture and ethnic foods are something the members of the International Club enjoy learning about at their monthly meetings. Speakers of different cultural backgrounds come and share personal experiences they have had in a variety of foreign lifestyles. Community service is also a part of the International Club. They collect canned goods at Thanksgiving, toys for Kids Yule Love at Christmas, and provide the teachers with refreshments during American Education Week.

Officers: Reporter Gretchen Riedel, President Angie Davis, Secretary Scotty Busbee, Treasurer Chris Pham, Vice-President Darrell Greene.

Science Club

The Science Club explores various areas of science and is dedicated to increasing the awareness of environmental issues here at Southeast. They participated in the GJAS Science Olympiad, the GJAS Scientific Problem Solving Bowl, and the GJAS Science Bowl. Through the leadership of President Lake Greene, Vice-President Chris Lorenz, and Secretary/Treasurer Dave Norwood, they continue to strive for a more ecologically safe and cleaner atmosphere here at Southeast as they have done in the past year.

Chess Club

Checkmate! This is a familiar phrase around a meeting of the Chess Club. These students sharpen their skills and even teach new players how to play this mind-boggling game at monthly meetings. They hold many Club tournaments, but this does not keep them from serving the community in ways such as holding a toy drive at Christmas. This game keeps their brains in tip-top shape!!

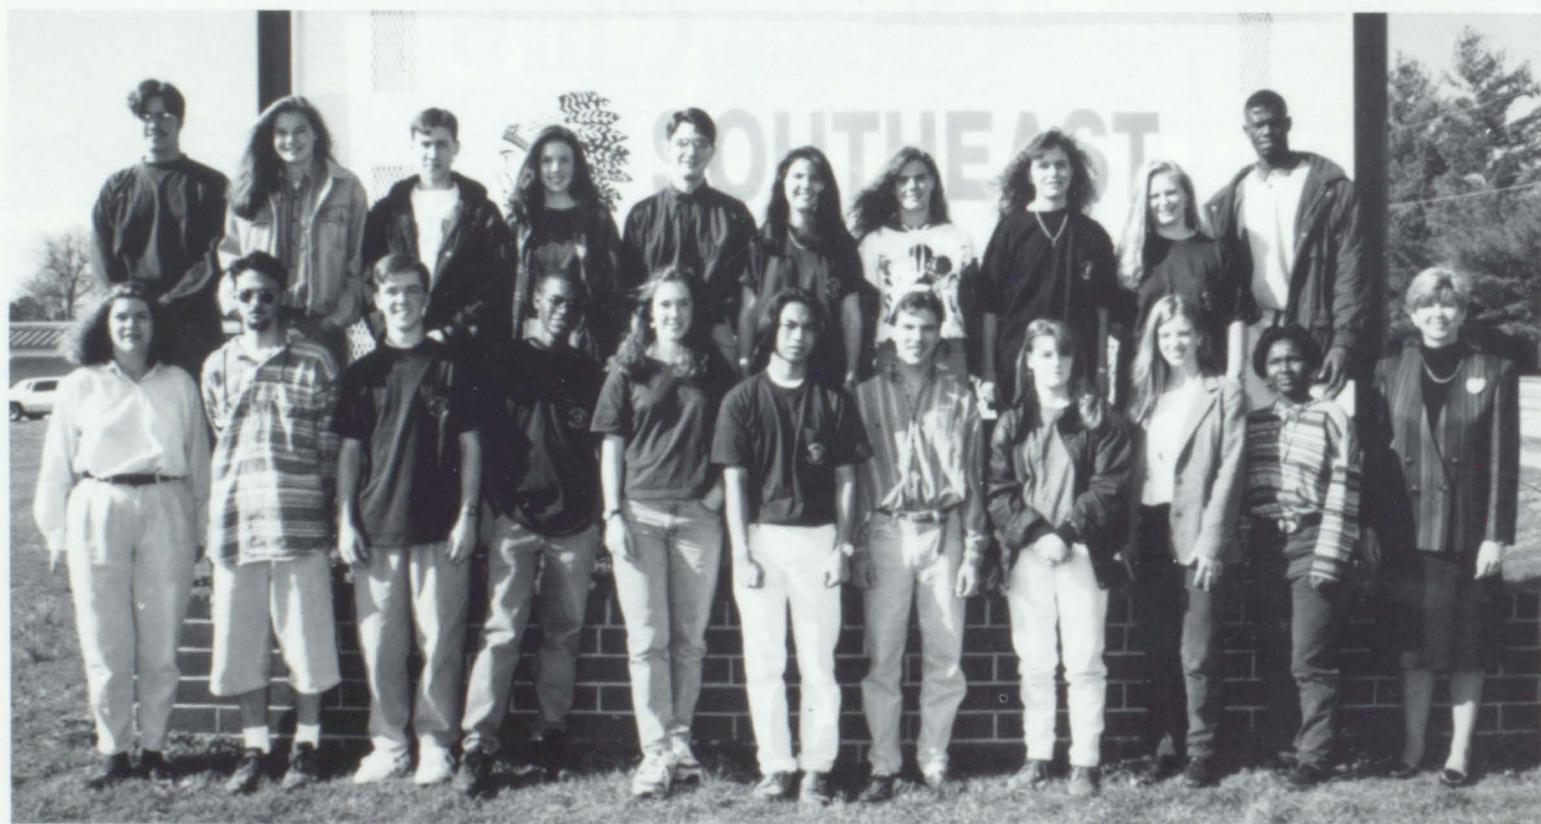

Members: Gretchen Riedel, David Matthews, Advisor Mrs. Davis-Johnson, Calvin Seabrooks, Kevin Morgan, Andy Tye.

Mu Alpha Theta

Mu Alpha Theta is a National Honor Society which recognizes outstanding achievement of Juniors and Seniors in Mathematics. Members of the organization volunteer at math meets, sponsor the "Problem of the Week" contest, and raise money for the math department. The members have worked very hard this year to keep Math alive, especially during National Mathematics Week. This is one of the Southeast most elite groups!

Academic Team

The Academic Team has been very successful this year in many tournaments across the state. Their hard work has paid off this year with many awards. Placing third at Fort Valley State and Macon College has really motivated the team. Darrell Greene, President of the Academic Team, placed third in the Math/Science competition at Gordon College, and the team advanced to the quarter finals in Channel 13's Teen Challenge. Congratulations on this year's great success!!

Math Team

$A = \frac{1}{2}bh$! This is very familiar to the members of the Math Team. The Math Team has been very successful this year by the team placing first at the Macon College Math Olympics and in the Bibb County Math Meet. Members Julie Black, Chris Pham, Andy Avera, Scotty Busbee, and Darrell Greene each took individual awards as well. Hard work really does pay off! Congratulations on all of your accomplishments!!

Band

The Southeast Band has grown quickly over the past years. This year they proved that this was one of their best years ever. The band performs at pep-rallies, football games, assemblies, other community events and civic functions. The purpose of the band is to provide experiences and opportunities for the students to expand their musical talents and creative ideas. Mr. Giles once again the band director, did a great job!

The band in action!!

Thanks to the band we had entertainment at all the football games.

Flag Corp

The girls wait for their cue.

The Flag Corp has grown and improved greatly over the past year. They performed at the football games with the band and participated in the pep rallies. The girls practiced all summer and when the first game came up they were great! The team puts their hearts into their performances and the result was a fantastic show!

Chorus

The Chorus at Southeast practices everyday at school. They perform at competitions around the state and at school. They usually perform at concerts they give at school and many of their members are also solo artists. They also have many groups within the chorus that perform.

Jazz Band

The new addition to Southeast High's Music Program is the Jazz Band. They have performed at PTA meetings, the Mock Wedding, the Christmas Concert, and in competition. They were outstanding and impressed everyone. One of the highlights of attending Southeast is the many opportunities to hear the Jazz Band perform. This group of musically gifted students practices often and their hard work has really paid off. The show must go on and the Jazz Band's show has turned out to be one of the best!

The Jazz Band performs at many PTA meetings.

FBLA

The Future Business Leaders of America strive for excellence in the areas of business, competitions, and community Service. The members have participated in walk-a-thons, canned food drives, and the Teddy Bear Patrol. The club also competed in the Region V competition and the State competition and represented Southeast rather well, coming home with numerous awards. The Future Business Leaders bring in numerous speakers to teach the members everything from running a business to what to say in an interview. Through the help of FBLA, the Business Department is now Industry Certified. Congratulations to the success FBLA has had this year!

TCR

TCR's, or Teen Community Representatives, are high school students who are interested in the betterment of our community. They must go through extensive training sessions before they are certified as TCR's. This year one of their projects was acting as a mother or father to a bag of flour. They are involved in many community service projects and hold meetings at the Medical Center.

SADD

Students against Drunk Driving, or SADD, are very active in providing the best prevention and intervention tools against driving under the influence of alcohol. They deal with other teenage issues including underage drinking, impaired driving, drug abuse, and destructive decisions and their consequences. Under the leadership of President Debra Jones, Co-President Jeni Floyd, and Secretary Joelyn Battle, the club does a great job sponsoring Red Ribbon Week.

Channel One

This year Southeast experienced something new; a team of amateur broadcasters which brought us news from the school and around the community over the television every morning. They read the announcements, interviewed teachers, students, and coaches for the latest happenings at Southeast. This is a great way to keep the students well informed.

VOCA

The VOCA club helps to give students an idea of how it will be when they get out into the business world. VOCA gives students an opportunity to participate in school activities that will give them experience in their career field.

FHA

The Future Homemakers of America help the students with the things that they will have to deal with on a daily basis in the home. They learn how to cook and take care of a family. They will certainly be prepared for life after high school.

FTA

The Future Teachers of America give the students the opportunity to get on the job training at Southeast. These students are gaining some of the knowledge that they will need in the future. As they prepare for their future, they assist with tutoring during lunch.

Members: Mrs. Macklin, Hope Wesson, Brian Robinson, Jackie Jordan, Erica Willis, Stacey Sanders, Laura Webb, Mrs. Stephens.

Teens Against Pregnancy takes a stand against teenage pregnancy in the school and community. They help students who have gotten in trouble deal with their problems as well. Mrs. Scott, their advisor, leads them in their battle against teenage pregnancy and other life threatening consequences.

Ethnic Studies Club

The Ethnic Studies Club keeps Southeast aware of other people and their lifestyles around the world. For Black History Month and other special events, this organization plans informative announcements and special activities to teach the students that there are more cultures than just their own and that people do live differently than Americans.

Members: Valeria Driskell, Tameka Cobb, Tracy Battle, Advisor Mrs. Jackson, Eric Miller, Cameka Sands.

Mentors Project

The Mentors Project gives students a chance to befriend an adult. These adults act as positive role models for the students and encourage them to set goals and work to achieve them. This is a great experience for the students and the adults. This shows them that getting involved really does make a difference.

Members: Beth Tillery, Trisha Zanders, Laura Webb, Belinda Pearson, Patricia Borders, Tasha Davis, Toshiba Battle, Mrs. Jackson.

Project YES

Project YES is an early way for students interested in college to explore the many different fields offered by colleges. They receive extra tutoring in school and they also learn the importance of early preparation for college and other future plans.

Junior City Council

Junior City Council, or JCC, is an organization which includes students from all over Macon, including both public and private high schools. They represent their fellow classmates by relating topics of concern to the members of the City Council at meetings and other functions. They take surveys to see what students really see as the key issues in today's society. Community Service is at the top of their priority list. These students represent Southeast well.

Southeast Representatives: Scotty Busbee, Christe Warren, Calvin Seabrooks, Laura Webb, Christy Dry.

Teen Page

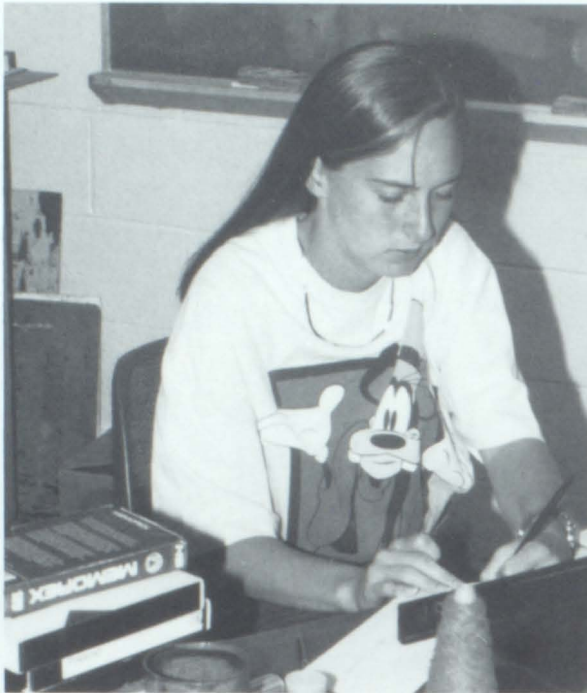

The Macon Telegraph's Teen Board is a select group of students from around Middle Georgia who work together to put together the weekly Teen Page, seen on Tuesdays in the newspaper. Students serve as writers, photographers, and editors while learning about journalism and how a newspaper is assembled. The Teen Board included everything from honors to movie reviews to foreign exchange students. They keep us well informed.

David Norwood, Southeast's representative on the Teen Board.

Annual Staff

Phoenix

The Annual Staff works year-round to produce a book full of memories that students can look back on when they are out of school. The members sell ads, produce layouts, crop pictures, and write copies. There is a lot of hard work that goes into the Phoenix, but the 1994 edition proves that the staff was also "definitely impressive".

Jennifer (Editor) goes over some lay-outs.

Southeast Signal/Perceptions

The Southeast Signal is the school newspaper and Perceptions is the school's very own literary magazine. The Signal contains articles about everything from new teachers to canceled pep rallies. The staff works very hard to include all of the school's activities and each and every opinion of the students in the paper. It is published quarterly.

Perceptions is published annually as a collection of poetry and prose. Each selection in the publication is written by a Southeast student. This year's magazine included some very unique creations as well, including a pop-up and glow-in-the-dark cover. This magazine will always be remembered as the best!

City Champs, Again!!

The Southeast Lady Warriors continued the winning tradition as seen with past Warrior softball teams. Under the leadership of Coach Richard Mathis, the Lady Warriors captured the city championship for the third straight year and took third place in the 4AAAA Region. This year's attack was led by four returning seniors: Leigh Jacobs, Jennifer Maddox, Jennifer Huskins, and Jennifer Wall. Overall they finished with a very respectable 15-6 season.

Got a problem, Jen.?

Where The Action Is

The Southeast Varsity football team gave their all throughout the season. Despite the games that were lost, the Warriors gave a tremendous effort that finally paid off!

With the pressure of a losing streak, the Warriors pulled through a difficult time with a few players quitting. This left the remaining Warriors striving to do the rest. Not only did they do their best, but the Warriors came away with a monstrous win against our sister school, Southwest. A special thanks and congratulations go out to all players and coaches who worked hard to make it a successful year, especially newcomer Bill Boyd.

Cheerleaders Rock The House

The Southeast Varsity Cheerleaders demonstrated their strong support, enthusiasm, and spirit for Southeast. These dedicated ladies put in several hours a week practicing their routines. They cheered faithfully through every football and basketball game providing full support for our athlete's. Even though every game wasn't a total win, the yells of the cheerleaders gave the game an extra boost.

The 1993-1994 Southeast Wrestling Team came through with yet another successful year. Many of the Wrestling Warriors excelled in making it to the Northside Invitational and also to the state meet. Those people consisted of Chris Harrell, Kenyata Runnels, and Kevin Morgan. The Warriors took no mercy on their opponents. Facing a tough season, they pulled through with a 4-6 record. These talented boys assure a promising season for Southeast next year. Good going guys!

Swoosh! There It Is!

The 1993-1994 boys Varsity basketball team, coached by Vincent Turner, came through with a 10-11 record. Members of the team endured long hours of practice where they worked on drills and playing ability, which payed off during the actual games. Along with striving for the many wins they accomplished, they also learned the meaning of teamwork which they showed a great deal of on the court. The team was led by Marvin Huff, T.J. Butler, Travis Henderson, Darrell Denmark, and Arthur Meadows.

Special Olympics

Team spirit shone through the 1994 Special Olympics. The Southeast athletes went beyond all limitations and met the challenges that faced them.

From wheelchair races to softball throws the Southeast athletes gave it all their all, with the help of volunteers. DECA and Civitan members were there to help the students and cheer them to victory.

Although the day was exhausting, it was rewarding for everyone. All of our Southeast Olympians left as winners, with memories they will cherish for years to come.

My Son Is Crazy . . .

The 1994 Senior Play "My Son is Crazy, But Promising," really fit it's title. The play was directed by John T. Jones with the assistance of Evie Crumbliss. The play centered around the Ritz Apache Lodge in Tumbleweed, Arizona. To no surprise, the "Ritz" did not have an air conditioner!

This play had many plots and plans. From a kooky old woman named Cora (Tammy Hubbard) who believed in spacemen to a couple who thought the Ritz was a luxurios place (Darrell Green and Demeka Reid) to undercover agents blowing up everything (Chris Pham and Angie Davis). Gert Witherspoon (Leigh Jacobs) was trying to sell the Lodge to Bud Granger (Michael Nordan) whose mother, Tilly Granger (Christy Dry), a hasbeen from Hollywood, strictly opposed the idea.

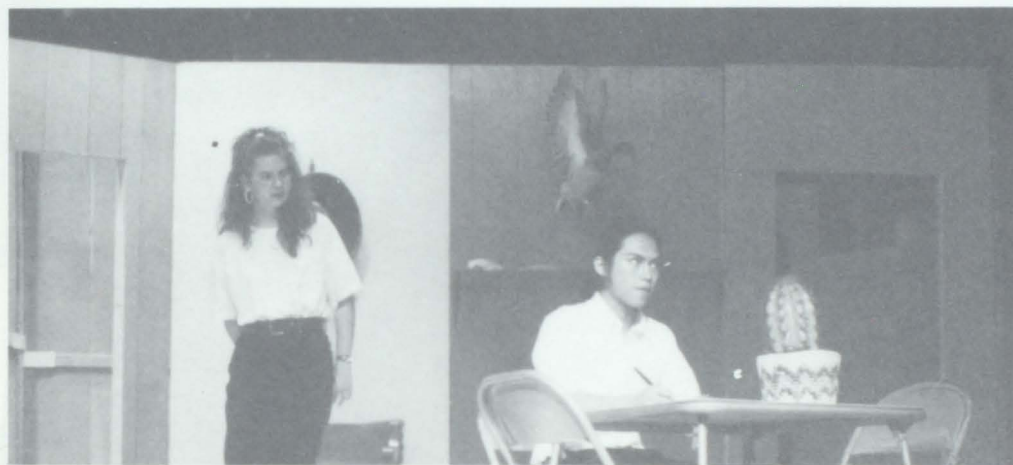

The real character of the play was Chi-Chi Vazoom (Christe Warren) who was an aspiring starlet who couldn't wait to make it in the big time. She was the fiancee of Oysters Rockerfeller (Jason Cox) who was a cocky gangster who esteemed himself to be much more than he was.

All the while, Sheriff Bates (Harry Webb) was trying to keep things straight at the Ritz Apache. Other characters were Fay Armstrong (Melissa McCarty) who was trying to make a story for her show by tracking Oysters to the Ritz and Karen Russell (Jennifer Wall) was the proud announcer that the space lady, Cora, won the lottery! Also, Lawrence Lime (David Norwood) added to the humor of the farce as Bud's director.

Senior Honor's Night

Senior Honor's Night was a time for the Class of 1994 to shine. It was held at the Grand Opera House, a special place for special people. Honor's Night was a time to reflect on the many accomplishments achieved and to realize that graduation was approaching fast. Many awards and scholarships were awarded to the Warriors for their hard work and dedication for many years. All in all, Senior Honor's Night was a successful affair. Congratulations go out to the Class of 1994 for all that you have done. Good luck!!!

UL: Tyrone and Kendra sing the alma mater one final time.

A: Which trophy is mine?!

UM: You Go Girls!!!

M: Who's your friend, Chris?

R: Tyrone accepts his award with pride.
